Read the following passage and answer the questions below:

Muhammad Yunus is a Bangladeshi banker and economist. Formerly, a professor of economics, he is most famous for his successful application of the concept of microcredit, the extension of small loans to entrepreneurs too poor to qualify for traditional bank loans. He is the founder of Grameen Bank, and he and the bank were jointly awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for their efforts to create economic and social development among the poor people.

During his visits to the poorest households in the village of Jobra near Chittagong University, Yunus discovered that very small loans could make a disproportionate difference to a poor person . He made a loan of USD 27.00 from his own pocket to 42 women in the village, who made a net profit of USD 0.02 each on the loan. He eventually managed to secure a loan from the Janata Bank to lend it to the poor in Jobra in December 1976.
