The symbols in the speech bubble mean that the parrot is saying bad language.

Why do you think the parrot used bad language when he spoke?

Where do you think he was when he said it?

What do you think happened to him when he said those words?

Why do you think this is an unusual news story?

A parrot named Percy was fired from the Bakersville Zoo. He was one of a dozen talking parrots, which are the zoo's main attraction. The parrots were performing in front of a crowd when Percy suddenly shrieked out improper language. The visitors and zookeepers were shocked. The zoo decided not to risk a repeat performance in front of children and kicked Percy out of the zoo. One zookeeper said, "We'll find a safe new home for Percy."

- Where do you think this story takes place?
- Who are the two people?
- What kind of snake is it?
- What do you think happens in this story that makes it unusual?

A 76-year-old grandfather saved his 8-year-old grandson from a 13-foot-long (4-meter-long) anaconda. The boy was playing with friends near a small river in Cosmorama, Brazil, when the snake attacked him. The boy's grandfather was working nearby. When the grandfather heard the boy's screams, he ran to the riverside and was able to get the animal off the boy. The fight between the snake and the man continued. Finally, someone managed to give the grandfather a big knife, and the grandfather killed the snake. Our hero was very strong, because it normally takes five men to overpower and get control of a snake that size.

The NEWS @ FIVE

What is the boy doing?

How does he look?

What do you think happened to him?

What happened in this story that makes it unusual?

The last thing 17-year-old Ricardo Gordon remembers was that a storm was coming, and he was rushing to get inside. Next thing he knew, he was lying in a hospital bed. Here is what happened. Ricardo was listening to the live broadcast of the football game when lightning hit him. As a result, his hair and ears were burned, and he had dark spots all over his body. The wounds on his body followed the wire of his smartphone, from his ears down to his hip, where he was carrying the device. The electric current traveled from his smartphone to his headphones. Ricardo is lucky to be alive!

The end

Language Builder

Point out that although news ends in -s, it is a singular noun. That is why we say Here is today's news or The news wasn't good.

Teaching Tip

Before giving information to students, always ask them what they know about the subject. For example, begin presentations with the question, What do you know about _____? Encourage students to explain in English, with the vocabulary they know.

Additional Activity

Activity 1: Have students work in pairs. One plays a reporter, and the other is a victim or witness. Have students role-play an interview that the reporter conducts. Have pairs act out their role plays for the class.

Activity 2: Have students work in groups to come up with different titles for the news reports in the presentation. Have each group present its titles. The class votes on the best titles.

- The chances of being struck by lightning are about 1 in 700,000.
- Contrary to popular belief, rubber shoes do not protect you from lightning.
- Talking on the telephone during a storm is the leading cause of lightning injuries inside the home.
- One of the most dangerous places to take shelter from a storm is under a tree.
- Lightning often does strike the same place twice. Tall buildings and monuments are frequently hit.
