THE STONES OF AL-ULA

To: qassim_n@space.net
Subject: School trip to Al-Ula

Hi Qassim,

I'm writing this email from our hotel in Al-Ula. We arrived this evening after a long bus journey from Madinah. It's really too bad you couldn't join us on our school trip. We're going to learn so much about the historical sites that we can't learn in books.

It's quite busy here in town, with tourists from all over the world who have come to visit Mada'in Saleh. Tomorrow a guide is going to show us around the site. We're also going to visit the museum, Al-Ula oasis, and the old abandoned city.

The archaeological site lies about 20 km north of the town. It's also known as Al-Hijr because of the spectacular rock formations in the area. As you know, the site was settled by the Nabataeans in the first century. There are over 100 rock-carved monuments that are spread over an area of 13.4 kilometers, and due to the dry climate, they are in an excellent state of preservation. The site was included in UNESCO's World Heritage List in 2008 because of its cultural and architectural importance.

The desert around the oasis is covered by natural rock formations. Hundreds of curious shapes were carved by the wind into the soft sandstone, one of which resembles a giant elephant! The old city of Al-Deerah is going to be very interesting. It has over 500 houses from the 13th century, with stone foundations and mud-brick walls. Some of the stones were taken from the ruins of a Lihyanite settlement and still carry the ancient inscriptions. There is also a unique sundial that the inhabitants used to determine the start of Ramadan.

Don't worry. I'll take lots of amazing pictures to show you!

Subject: re: vacation

Hi Rashid,

How are you? You're going to have a lot of fun skiing in June. And I love your idea! Let's definitely spend the weekend together in the fall. It's going to be perfect after my vacation to Malaysia and yours to Dubai.

I have more information about my trip. First, we're going on a river safari to see wildlife like monkeys, orangutans, and elephants. Our next adventure is climbing Mount Kinabalu. We're going to hike for five hours and stay overnight at a rest house. Early the next morning, we're going to climb all the way to the top. It's going to be a wonderful view at sunrise. I'm a little afraid, but we're going to have an experienced guide for the climb. Finally, we're going to relax at the beach for a few days.

I'm going to pack warm clothes for our climb—sweatpants, a sweater, and a good pair of hiking boots. Are you going to pack warm clothes, too? Of course, I'm also going to take some shorts and T-shirts.

You and I are going to have great summer vacations! And we're going to have a great fall vacation, too!

All my best,

Saeed

Culture Notes

To date (2015), Saudi Arabia has three sites inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List: Al-Hijr Archaeological Site, At-Turaif District in ad-Dir'iyah, and Historic Jeddah--the Gate to Makkah.

Al-Hijr was the first archaeological site in Saudi Arabia to be inscribed on the World Heritage List in 2008. The ancient settlement at Al-Hijr, known then as Hegra, flourished in the first century as a crossroads for trade. It was the second capital of the Nabataean civilization after Petra, Jordan. Characteristic of Nabataean architecture, the monuments and inscriptions were cut directly into the rock formations. Their state of preservation is remarkable because of the dry climate and lack of resettlement after the site was abandoned.

At-Turaif District in ad-Dir'iyah was inscribed in 2010. Originally founded in the 15th century, Dir'iyah became the capital of the first Saudi Dynasty from 1744 to 1818. The site includes several palaces of the Nadji architectural style, which is characterized by its geometric design and the use of adobe or sun-dried brick. Among the major monuments are Salwa Palace, Turaif Wall, and Prince Saad bin Saud Palace.

Historic Jeddah was recently inscribed in 2014. Located on the eastern shore of the Red Sea, Jeddah became a major port for trade routes from the 7th century. It was (and is) also a major gateway for Muslim pilgrims to the Holy City of Makkah. Thus, the historic city flourished as a multicultural center. The architectural style is characterized by the traditional use of coral building material, which is prominent in the monument of Bayt Naseef.

Teaching Tip

If students' first language is related to English, there will be some words that are cognates. Encourage students to notice cognates and use their knowledge of their own language to give them clues to the meaning of words in English.

Additional Activity

To make the writing activity more realistic, have students send the email they write to you, or to a student in the class. You, or the student who receives the email, should send a response.

Project: Plan a Visit

As an extension to the reading, have students research and write about another place to visit in Saudi Arabia. They should find out about its special characteristics, its history, and other important information for travelers.
