

Imagine that you live in a foreign country, talk about its culture and customs :

Different - customs - noodles
Chopsticks - getting used to - Chinese language - country

China

I live in China because I study there. Living there is not easy for me. There are many different customs. In China, the food is different .They eat rice and noodles with chopsticks. I am getting used to learning Chinese language .In China, the family name comes before the first name. Finally, China is a great country.
