What Are Adverbs of Degree?

Adverbs of degree are used to indicate the intensity or degree of something. They are typically used to answer questions such as 'how much' or 'to what extent'.

Common Adverbs of Degree

Some of the most common adverbs of degree are:

- Hardly
- Completely
- Very
- Slightly
- Absolutely
- Entirely
- Most
- Pretty
- Quite
- Too

Adverbs of Degree: Placement

When we want to use adverbs of degree in sentences, we can use them in either of the four positions below:

- Before the main verb

Amber is totally done with you. 🔊