

Will + Infinitive – Simple Future in English Grammar

---

Simple future tense, also known as the future tense with will, is one of the ways to talk about future events in the English language.

Example

Explanation

We will travel to Argentina next month.

Will travel is the verb travel put in the simple future tense.

Construction and Conjunction

---

Rule 1: To form simple future tense with will, we follow the structure will + infinitive form of the verb. The conjugation of the future simple with will is the same for all forms.

Here's an overview of the positive, negative and interrogative conjugation of the future simple tense in English:

Person	Positive	Negative	Question
all forms are the same for both singular and plural	I will sing	You will not sing	Will they sing?

Note: In spoken and informal written English, we can use contractions in simple future - short forms of pronouns or verbs with the word not. Here's how to create them:

Long Form	Contraction	Example
will	'll	they'll
will not	'll / won't	they'll not / they won't

Usage

---

Rule 2: We can use the simple future tense with will to express a spontaneous decision.

Example

Explanation

Let's go, I will show you the best viewing point in the city.

Here, simple future tense with will is used to express a spontaneous decision to go somewhere.

Rule 3: We can use the simple future tense with will to express an opinion, hope, uncertainty, or assumption regarding the future.

Example

Explanation

You won't finish this essay in one day.

The simple future tense with will is used to express an assumption.

Learn English with Langster

Start learning

Rule 4: We can use the simple future tense with will to express a promise.

Example

Explanation

I will finish this essay till tomorrow morning.

The simple future tense with will is used to express a promise.

Rule 5: We can use the simple future tense with will to express an offer or request.

Example

Explanation

Will you help me with cooking?

The simple future tense with will is used to express a request.

Rule 6: We use the simple future tense with will to form the first conditional.

Example

Explanation

If it rains tomorrow, we will cancel our picnic.

The simple future tense with will is used to construct the first conditional.