

1.2 revision U1 – Did you hurt yourself?

Question 1 :- Grammar

I = myself / you = yourself – yourselves / they = themselves / he = himself / she = herself / it = itself

e.g : 1- He likes to look at (yourself – themselves – himself) in the mirror.

2. I fixed the hair dryer (myself – herself – himself).

Most accidents happen (so – because) people don't pay attention.

He didn't turn off the electricity, (because – so) he got shock.

(So = تستخدم للموافقة المثبتة)

(neither = تستخدم للموافقة المنفية)

A: I'm a careful driver.

A: I'm not an aggressive driver.

B: (neither- so) am I.

B: (so – neither) am I.

You (must – must not) stop at the traffic lights.

You (should – shouldn't) eat when you're driving.

Turn left.

Turn right.

Go straight.

Question 2 :- Vocabularies :-

Lucky day = a day of good fortune.

Stuck in = caught and unable to move out

Bald = having no hair on the head

To recover = to get better.

To challenge = to contest or fight against

To burst = to explode.

Question 3 :- Reading page 10

Railroad worker Phineas P. Gage was working with some dynamite when it exploded unexpectedly. A bar that was 3 feet (1 meter) long and that weighed 13 pounds (6kg) went clear through his head. He remained conscious, but was unable to see out of his left eye. After a while, his sight returned, and he fully recovered.

1. What was the name of the railroad worker?
2. How long was the bar?
3. How much did the bar weigh?
4. What happen to his left eye?

Question 4 :- Write about an accident (did you hurt yourself?).

.....

.....