

"Be like a duck, paddling and working very hard inside the water, but what everyone sees is smiling and calm face"

WORKING 9 TO 5

Listening, Pronunciation and Vocabulary Building
page 7

LISTENING

You will listen to people talking about how satisfied they are with their jobs.

Play the audio, listen and circle yes or no for each job.

Play the audio again, write the reasons.

Play the audio again, to check your answers

PRONUNCIATION

*Play the audio, listen and repeat,
or speak along with the recording.*

Learning Goals #02: Identify the sound of -tion, -cian, and -sion

Learning Goals #03: Find the stressed syllable in a word

VOCABULARY BUILDING

Work individually to match the words
with the definitions.

Compare answers with a partner.

FUN FACT

In a recent study, two jobs rated worst for job satisfaction were lumberjack and taxi driver. The reasons were the facts dangerous working conditions and poor pay.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITY

Do a job survey among friends and family about job satisfaction. You should write each job and have the person rate the job from 1 (not satisfying) to 5 (very satisfying). Report your findings to the class

Learning Goals #03: Survey a satisfying job

OSTRICH CHICK

Homework
Exercise 1, 2
page 81, 82

