

Reading Summary

Criteria	Description
The People	Saudi Arabia's 2030 vision is largely based on the ambition, determination, and talents of its people. The Saudi society will be supported by social, health care, and educational systems. Cultural and entertainment projects will be established, housing and community development projects will provide a pleasant environment, and an updated educational system will provide high-quality learning and access to professional development opportunities.
The Economy	The Kingdom's economy has great growth potential. A diversified and renewed business environment will offer employment opportunities to all citizens and attract new investors. Improved services and facilities will attract companies interested in participating actively in a dynamic economy. The Kingdom's strategic position will make it a leading trading and transportation port. Streamlined government services will facilitate the introduction of new business sectors and partners. Investment opportunities will be increased through the privatization of state-owned assets and agencies. The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia will be a leading business hub with limitless opportunities for the development of new talent and creative enterprises.

Saudi Arabia's 2030 Vision aims to capitalize on the nation's abundant natural resources, unique culture, and Islamic values to drive economic growth. The focus is on supporting the Saudi society by providing access to social, healthcare, and educational systems that nurture and prepare future generations. Cultural and entertainment projects, such as libraries, galleries, and museums, will add to the richness of the country's heritage. Additionally, housing and community development projects aim to create a secure and sustainable environment for citizens.

In terms of the economy, Saudi Arabia plans to diversify and modernize its business environment to attract both local and foreign investment. This includes updating telecommunications and information technology infrastructure in urban and rural areas. Leveraging its strategic location, the country aims to become a leading trading and transportation hub. The government will streamline services to facilitate introducing new business sectors and partners, while also increasing investment opportunities through privatization.

The comprehensive vision for Saudi Arabia envisions a prosperous future, with a strong economy driven by talented individuals and innovative enterprises.
