Have the students make pairs. One student should ask the other, “What happened to you yesterday/last week/last month/last year?” The other student should answer and then the first student should quickly comment. Next, have the pair switch parts. Once they have finished, they can raise their hands and say, “We’re finished!” Once a pair is finished, check the box in their books.

Grammar in Action

التهيئة

The students should say, “Hello! How are you?” to the teacher and their classmates when they enter the classroom. Use the Life’s Ups and Downs flashcards and the pictures on page 58 to review the verbs and past tense irregular verbs learned in Lesson 1 of this unit. Have the students stand in a circle. Say the regular form of the verb and then throw the ball to a student. The student who catches the ball says the past tense irregular form. Then motion for the student to throw the ball back to you. Continue the game by throwing the ball to other students and saying different verbs. The students should always throw the ball back to you. Hand over to students and let them lead the game.
